FOLK DANCE FESTIVAL
BY UM STUDENTS
SCHEDULED THURSDAY

MISSOULA--

The Second Annual International Folk Dance Festival and Concert will be presented by students of the University of Montana Thursday (May 28).

The free concert, which is open to the public, is scheduled in the Copper Commons of the University Center from 8 p.m.-1:30 a.m.

Traditional folk music will be provided by the Oriental Jazz Ensemble. Their repertoire includes selections from Israel, Greece, Russia, Mexico and other nations.

Also included in the program will be two duets made up of students from Southeast Asia and Japan. Other groups will perform American ethnic music including Deep South gospel and Blue Grass selections.

Folk dance instruction will be given during the program by the students.
